Hi Jiarui,

Applications are now open for accommodation at the University of Bristol for 2025/26.

If you meet the terms of our accommodation guarantee and apply by 30 June 2025, you will be guaranteed a room offer.

You can apply now if you have accepted an offer to study at the University of Bristol.

How to apply

To apply for University accommodation, you must register for the Accommodation Portal and complete the accommodation application form.

You will need your student number to register which can be found on your Applicant Portal.

Apply for accommodation

The application form will ask for your preferences, including budget, bathroom, flat type and catering. Telling us your preferred residences is optional.

If you have a disability or specific accommodation needs, you may need to provide more information about your room requirements.

You can learn more about our accommodation options before you apply.

All guaranteed students applying between now and 30 June 2025 will be given equal priority when accommodation is allocated.

Any questions?

You can find more information on our applying for University accommodation pages.

Our Accommodation Portal help page can support you if you experience any technical issues when making your application.

Best wishes,

Student Accommodation
